

Hey, Homeboy!

Step away from the microfiber futon, then head toward these modern and sexy style sources.

1. By Design

Of all the money you could spend on Cheshire Bridge Road, this is one place to get a solid return on your investments. Source high-end European contemporary furnishings scaled for American homes. That means mod for every room of yours!

2. CB2

Crate & Barrel's quirky cousin offers clean-lined cool—on the cheap (think $2 for a wine glass). Drop in at Midtown Mile, then take home no-frills basics like dishware, dining tables and sleek storage solutions in several poppy color options. @cb2midtown

3. Design Within Reach

This Buckhead showroom's modern classics will give cachet to your crib without breaking the bank. Even a simple Eames chair—paired with a DIY canvas in a matching color—can immediately take a room from regular to rockstar. @dwr_tweets

4. Direct Furniture

By sourcing floor samples from the country's biggest furniture markets, this Westside showroom is able to deliver spectacular prices on cutting-edge, contemporary furnishings—from folding sofas to TV stands—and does custom, too. @directatlanta

5. Kolo Collection

There's outdoor décor galore at this fun Westside boutique, where you'll find high-end lines like Fermob's vivid-hued options and Loll's Adirondack chairs—the same ones on the bocce court at Empire State South—to satisfy your youthful spirit. @kolocollection

6. Mitchell Gold + Bob Williams

Have a lamp custom-made in any color at the Buckhead location—that's a no-brainer—and pick up classic-modern artwork, throw blankets, side tables, even a sofa that'll make both you and mom proud. You'll love it forever, which is a good thing, because it'll last forever, too. @mgbwatlanta

7. Room & Board

At White Provision, peruse the American-crafted inventory for nubby wool chairs, Shaker-style wood beds, even cool slipcovered outdoor furniture that can withstand spring's most diabolical pollen storms. @roomandboard

8. Simcolifestyle

This Midtown one-stop shop's experts will do it all for you, fully outfitting your rooms with Miami-sexy Tui Lifestyle furnishings—plus wall treatments, closet systems and lighting—without you ever lifting a finger. @simcolifestyle

9. Verde Home

Indulge the earthy dude inside with eco-chic upholstery by Cisco Brothers and Gus* Modern, furniture by locals like Skylar Morgan and an expert selection of rugs at the Westside's Brickworks district. Don't know where to start? Co-owner/designer Laura Walker Baird will fix you right up. @verdehome

10. West Elm

You can't go wrong with all the neutral shades and organic textures in this Atlantic Station store—they're easy to mix and match, and add warmth that the lady friend will appreciate when she comes over, too. @westelm —Kate Abney
